About

The Early Help Partnerships training offer is a standalone topic-based programme which continues to support and embed the principles of whole family ways of working. It looks to upskill the universal workforce and underpin the core values of partnership working. The training is readily available and accessible for SCC employees and our wider partners. All training is free to access and compliments that of all other training attended.

So that we can manage our bookings and training is attended by the relevant services our booking links are private and are shared regularly with staff, schools and partner agencies.

Below is a list of upcoming Early Help Partnership sessions available to book now. These sessions will be delivered via Zoom or Microsoft Teams unless otherwise stated. To assist the facilitation of the session we ask that all cameras are switched on for the duration of the session.

Core Training & Dates:

2 Day Generic Parenting Training	This is delivered over 2 dates, you must attend both sessions. Please book your place on both sessions. Please do not book if you cannot attend both dates. The course is designed to offer staff working with families practical and informative strategies around parenting advice. During the two sessions you will be looking at the importance of play, the power of praise, effective limit setting and how to advise parents about handling misbehaviours. Workers are often asked to address boundaries and routines when visiting families; this course will assist workers through tools that you will take away in supporting and implementing practical, yet positive parenting.	Date TBC
